INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE TEACHER

Hiroyuki Murakami

Mr. Hiroyuki Murakami came here under the auspices of the Council of International Educational Exchange. Hiro, a 33 year old Japanese teacher, was a guest in Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Verburg's home for three weeks.

Hiro is married and the father of two, a five year old daughter, Megumi, and a three year old son, Naoyuki. His wife, Shinko, is a piano teacher at prefecture art college in Beppu Aoyama Senior High School.

Hiro arrived in Primghar August 30 after spending some time out East and at Rutgers College. He wanted to learn the ways of the American family and school life and improve his English speaking ability. He himself is an English teacher at Beppu Aoyama Senior High School.

During Hiro's stay, the Primghar faculty and students learned much about the Japanese people and their culture. We enjoyed having Mr. Murakami in the school, and were particularly impressed with his lectures and slides of Japan.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. ALMOND TARNASKY

Mr. Tarnasky was born November 29, 1924 at Lehr, North Dakota, and married Donna Saupe at Archer. He was a veteran of World War II and was an instructor at Primghar Community Schools since 1954. Mr. Tarnasky died at the Hartley Hospital December 15 following a long illness.

He is survived by his widow and four children, Donald, Alan, Sandra, and Sharon all at home.

A memorial service in honor of Mr. Tarnasky was held December 17 in the high school auditorium. Junior and senior high school students and their parents were welcome to attend.

Selections were read by Roxanne Vander Tuig, Stan McDowell, and Mark Kurth. The Reverand Vernon Clausing, a friend of the Tarnasky family, delivered the obituary and prayers. The message was presented by the Reverand William Bohi, pastor of the Tarnasky family. Two vocal selections were sung by the Mixed Double Quartet.

CLASS HISTORY

In August of 1957 a sprout of a tree was implanted in forty-two roots that would grow only by further education. Under the direction of our grower, Miss Wellman, these roots were as follows: DeEtte Anderson, Cheryl Arrick, P. Baughman, Mary Bethel, Tony Bower, Denis Brown Carol Craun, D. Dicksen. Marcia Doehla, Sybil Egger, Pat Elgersma, D. Ganzevoort, Russell Hintz, Jim Hopkins, Ricky Irvine, Steve Jacobs, D. Johnson, Mark Langholtz, Phillip Larson, Phyllis Larson, Helen Lucas, Kerry Miller, Judy Oldenkamp, Bill Reese, Sharon Reuvers, Dennis Revis, Myrna Rosenboom, Paul Schueller, B. Shiery, Don Smith, Lorrita Struve, Donna Steuck, Mark Tiemans, Sharon Tesch, Rodney Vander Pol, Roger Vander Pol, Gerda Vander Sloot, Connee Van Heuvelen, Mark Weemhoff, Pat Wheeler, Dan Wittrock, and Gordon Wittrock.

Upon returning for our second year of school, we found that we had gained Perry Brown, Dan Kammerer, Faye Lucas, Philip Manley, Stan McDowell, Jeri Smith, Dennis Sullivan, and Wayne Viessman. Mary Bethel, P. Baughman, D. Dicksen, Pat Elgersma, D. Gonzevoort, D. Johnson, Dennis Revis, and B. Shiery left us.

As second graders, we added Douglas Blesie, Daryl Ebel, Orville Ginger, Thomas Hansen, Judy Oldenkamp, and Barbara Reekers to our class, but lost Russell Hintz, Rick Irvine, and Mark Weemhoff.

As we continued to grow in knowledge and character, our roots developed firm foundations. While advancing to the third grade, taught by Miss Mechem and Mrs. Reid, we were joined by Janice Kurth and Debbie Landreth. Our only loss was Douglas Elesie.

During fourth grade our new members became Gary Axdahl, Mary Buse, Scott Hadden Vicki Hinz John McKee and Rosemarie Schueder. Those who left our enrollment were Debbie Landreth Faye Lucas and Myrna Rosenboom.

Miss Bilsland and Mrs. Stevens were our teachers when Donald Bender and Rodney Flemming joined us in the fifth grade. Those to leave us were Gary Axdahl, Rosemarie Schueder, Loritta Struve and Pat Wheeler.

Sixth grade was taught by Mrs. Bornholt and Mr. Vellinga. We gained Pat Elgersma and Jim Hopkins, but lost Don Bender, Tom Hansen, Mark Langholz, and John McKee.

Myrna Rosenboom once again joined our class in seventh grade to replace Rodney Flemming.

In the eighth grade Judy Oldenkamp left us while Becky Thunhorst and Alan Rodenberg added their faces to our class. Mrs. Tanner and Mr. Tarnasky were our growers.

During our first year of high school Steve Bode, Sandy Heller, Keith Logan, and Sharon Sleeper joined us, while DeEtte Anderson and Mark Tiemans decided to look for greener pastures.

Our class was cut in size during tenth grade with only one gain (Rod Getting) and five losses (Keith Logan, Dennis Sullivan, Phillip Larsen, Allen Rodenberg, and Orville Ginger).

Our last year of school brought Reina Eshuis (foreign student from Holland) and Pam Schweikert were added while Myrna Rosenboom and Connee Van Heuvelen left our class.

Twenty students completed all thirteen years of schooling in the Primghar Community School. They are Tony Bower, Denis Brown, Carol Craun, Marcia Doehla, Sybil Egger, Sharon Reuvers, Don Smith, Donna Steuck, Sharon Tesch, Rodney Vander Pol, Roger Vander Pol Gerda Vander Sloot, Dan Wittrock, and Gordon Wittrock.

This year's sponsors for the junior class were Mr. Davis, Mrs. Weseman, Mrs. Ewoldt, Mrs. Klink, and Mr. Verberg. The Student Council representatives were Lois Irvine and Mark Kurth. Sue Ney represented the juniors in promoting school spirit as a cheerleader.

Some of the activities we participated in were Homecoming which was held in the school gym with the title of "Neptunian Paradise." Music was provided by Billy Redman's band. Sue Ney was our queen attendant with Frank Magnuson as her escort. We also participated in Prom activities. Mark Kurth presided as Master of Ceremonies for the evening and the 5th Generation furnished the music for the dance. The theme of Prom was "In-A-Gadda-Da-Veda." The banquet was held in the Catholic church.

This second year of high school has proved to be very rewarding. Our sponsors for this year were Mrs. Ballard, Mr. Schnack, and Mr. Bertrand to whom we give our thanks. Pat Langholtz and Randy Viessman were chosen as our student council representatives. JoAnn Link was chosen to represent our class as a cheerleader. Our queen attendant was Laurie Schoening, with Galen Sampson as her escort. Some of our activities were building a homecoming float, "Victory's on the Line," which gave us first place, sponsoring booths at the carnival, and sponsoring an overseas child.

During our first year in high school, our sponsors were Mrs. Geerdes, Mr. Carlson, and Mr. Hoel. We give our thanks to them. Representing our class in cheerleading was Julie Hopkins. Jean Kammerer and John Greenlee were selected as student council members. This was also the first year we participated in the school carnival. Our float was "Locking Up a Victory" which received second place for Homecoming. Janet Sauer was our queen attendant and was escorted by Mike Davis.

WAITING

Reina Eshuis
Henglo, Holland

Reina Eshuis came to Primghar in August, 1969, as a YFU exchange student from Henglo, Holland. Her home town is located in the middle of eastern Holland near the German border, with 75,000 to 80,000 inhabitants. Reina stayed with Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith and family. Reina participated in marching, concert and pep band, girls' and mixed chorus, pep club, FTA, and Student Council. She had a vocal solo at contest, and received a number one rating.
